Dear Chief of Police,

The United States Department of Justice is dedicated to honoring law enforcement personnel and to doing all that it can to help ensure that they remain safe as they protect and serve the public. That is why the United States Attorney's Office for the Central District of California is partnering with the International Association of Chiefs of Police, the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, the Los Angeles Police Department, and the Los Angeles City Attorney's Office to sponsor the 2011 Central District of California Officer Safety Summit and Training.

The Officer Safety Summit will be held at the Los Angeles Police Department's Deaton Auditorium on June 28, 2011. This event is designed for command staff and will include presentations from L.A. CLEAR about deconfliction, an update from the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation about inmate releases and non-revocable parole, and presentations from local agencies about recent successful anti-gang operations. We hope you are able to attend. More details are available on the attached detail sheet.

The Officer Safety Training will consist of two repeating day-long training sessions to be held in Los Angeles in September. We are working with ATF and IACP to finalize the details of this training, but right now we expect that each day will include presentations on characteristics of an armed gunman, hidden compartments, and firearms tracing. We expect to be able to provide the final details at the Officer Safety Summit or soon thereafter. ATF and IACP have provided this training in the past and it is always well received. We invite you to send as many officers as possible.

I hope that you or a member of your senior command staff can attend the June 28 Officer Safety Summit. I look forward to seeing and meeting as many of you as possible.

Thank You,

André Birotte Jr.
United States Attorney
Central District of California

The International Association of Chiefs of Police in partnership with the Bureau of Justice Assistance, U.S. Department of Justice are pleased to present, in association with the United States Attorney's Office for the Central District of California, the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, the Los Angeles Police Department, and the Los Angeles City Attorney's Office, the 2011 Central District of California Officer Safety Summit and Training.

The first event will be an Executive Session held on Tuesday, June 28, 2011. This event is directed at command staff from all law enforcement agencies within the seven counties that make up the Central Judicial District of California. Highlights of this event will include a presentation on deconfliction through L.A. CLEAR and the Western States Information Network, presented by L.A. CLEAR Director Douglas Owsley, and a presentation on non-revocable parole and inmate releases from the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, presented by Chief Deputy Secretary Terri McDonald. Please click here for a letter of invitation from Central District United States Attorney André Birotte Jr. and click here for a detail sheet with more information.

The second event will be training sessions in September 2011. This training is directed at line officers, detectives, and prosecutors to include presentations on characteristics of an armed gunman, hidden compartments and firearms tracing. IACP has presented this training in Southern California with ATF before and it is always well received. As with past presentations, we anticipate more than 1000 officers will attend. More details will be available at the Officer Safety Summit and in follow-up e-mails.

We hope that you can take advantage of these no-cost training events. To register for the Executive Session click here or email Courtney Mariette, IACP Training Coordinator at lineofficers@theiacp.org or Shawn Nelson, Assistant United States Attorney at Shawn.Nelson@usdoj.gov.
